

KING'S CALL 2009

REMEMBERING PHILIP PARRIS LYNOTT

ML The Sun Goes Down

February 22nd 2009

3:13 PM...

Last month some swedish friends arranged their annual Phil Lynott tribute night called King's Call. Thanks for letting me be a part of it. The photo above is one of the last of Phil before he died.

The Krux shows in january went great, we won't play again for a while though - more about that on my MySpace blog.

I had a couple of studio sessions in february, the Lotto commercial (I sing backing vox) and also a tv show intro where I sing the lead. (not 100% confirmed yet...)

Played a couple of songs with Doro at her release party at Pub Anchor in january.

I've started watching the 5th season of Lost, not bad so far.

Tonight I'll watch AC/DC at the Globe arena here in Stockholm. It's the 5th time I see them and I hope it's the last. What I mean is that I respect them a lot and I don't want them to tour again in 2013 if they're too old to deliver 100% you know...

Finally, sorry for not having updated the homepage that much during the last few months. I had all the code & software in my old laptop, now it's all transferred.

Cheers, M.

