

METAL★EVEN

OCTOBER 2006

There comes a time when enough is enough.

It's been almost 1 year since MTM Music released the cd with old demo material from Swedish Erotica. MTM contacted us early 2005 and we signed a contract regarding the usual stuff, including the payment for the mix & master.

Today, in October 2006, they've still only paid us half of that money. We've been promised to receive the rest about 10 times this year.

I tell you, one gets pretty fed up with phoning MTM's german office, hearing bad excuses and lies time after time. They never reply to mails or any of our left messages. Does this sound like a serious record company to you? Didn't think so.

Now I remember, I actually got a mail from MTM. It was an announcement that they had recruited Matt Sinner to work for them, guess he must be working for free then...

I know that Torben in Fatal Force had big problems getting his money as well. I sang on that album, and one would imagine that MTM would like to release a follow-up next year since it got great reviews. Fat chance, Fritz.

If anyone who reads this is thinking about working with MTM - I strongly advice you to think again...

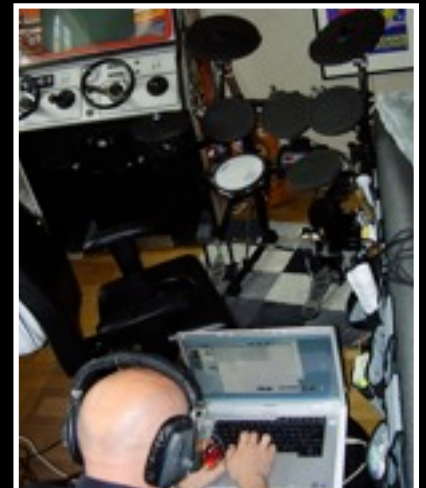

So, maybe you wonder who the hell that guy in the picture is? Well, he's Mike Crain.... Let's send him to MTM Music with a message, teaching them a thing or two about morals and doing the right thing. You don't mess with the Karartist Preacher!

And now to something completely different...

A picture of Dr. Carl preparing to force me into playing 7/8 beats on my V-drums earlier this year. The doctor has a little nasty project going on. Check out his band Carp-tree by the way. Carl is also a member of Krux, and played on the Abstrakt Algebra album.

If anyone knows how to fix my beautiful car arcade game to the left in the picture, let me know. MTM Music will happily pay any bills.

Yesterday (oct.10th), journalist & mother Anna Politkovskaja was buried in Moscow. Since Putin became president in 2000, 12 journalists have been murdered in Russia.

Anna Politkovskaja will not be forgotten.
